

I don't understand why the cable companies gets to pick and choose the customers they serve. I know where I am located in North Carolina, I can't get cable service. Therefore I can't get TV with out a satelite dish. Now if I wanted telephone service, the phone companies are required to provide me service.